with 3D Stereo Surround Sound
and Detachable Boom Mic

VOLUME DISCOUNTS AVAILABLE

Enhance your online web meetings and free up your office workspace with a wireless headset specially designed for online web conferencing. The Workstream™ by Monoprice™ Bluetooth Wireless Web Meeting Headset boasts a unique design feature, offering a built-in mic, as well as an optional detachable boom mic that is fine tuned to pick up more of your voice and less ambient noise. With its dual-chip design, it can be connected directly to your Bluetooth enabled device, or any PC, media, or game console via the included USB transmitter. With up to 32 hours of talk time in Bluetooth mode, a 2-hour quick charge time, and 125 hours of standby time, this Workstream Wireless Web Meeting Headset is an ideal solution for your web conference needs, at a great price.

DETACHABLE BOOM MICROPHONE

While this headset features a built-in mic, it also includes a flexible, detachable boom mic for a crisp, clean voice response.

FOLDABLE DESIGN

With its foldable design, the Workstream Web Meeting Headset can be easily stored, or tucked away for portability.
